Our first bespoke international dispute resolution training for senior Chinese lawyers will be running from 3-7 June 2019

The one-week training will consist of practical placements and training on the following:

- English Common Law in theory and practice
- International arbitration: recent developments and international best practice
- Contracts, choosing governing law, type of dispute settlement, seat of settlement
- Corporate governance, discovery and evidence retention
- Discovery and disclosure
- Third Party funding

NOW OPEN FOR APPLICATIONS

This one-week full-time educational and social programme is aimed at senior practising Chinese lawyers.

It is a unique opportunity for Chinese lawyers to deepen their understanding of legal processes and the work of barristers in England and Wales. It will enhance participants' legal skills and knowledge and enable you to develop valuable international contacts.

It will involve a full working week of talks, meeting and social events and participants will be expected to attend all events in the week.
